Who: Anyone interested in the issues affecting those living with a brain injury: Survivors, Family Members, Friends, or Others are all welcome!

Our support groups are an informal chance to meet others in similar situations, to share information, and hear others' stories of challenges and successes.

Meetings usually have a theme, and start with a brief presentation or structured discussion, followed by a chance to chat and mingle with others. There's always coffee and food, and always a warm welcome.
